

Primož Dolenc
Bank of Slovenia
Member of the EBA Board of Supervisors

Primož Dolenc, Deputy Governor, Bank of Slovenia, graduated from the Faculty of Economics, University of Ljubljana, where he finished also his masters and Ph.D. studies. In 2006 he defended his doctoral thesis on sovereign assets and liabilities management.

From 2000 until April 2016 he held several advisory and managerial positions in financial market institutions (state treasury and banks).

He was a full professor and researcher at the University of Primorska, responsible for the graduate course on banking and finance. As an academic he is the author and co-author of many peer reviewed articles on finance, financial institutions and financial markets, co-author of three university textbooks and several monograph publications, he held speeches at numerous international conferences and several foreign universities.

He was appointed as Vice-Governor and a Member of the Board of the Bank of Slovenia in 2016 and started his mandate in April 2016. He is currently a member of the Board of Supervisors at the EBA and a member of the General Board of the European Systemic Risk Board (ESRB). In the Bank of Slovenia he is responsible for Macroprudential Policies, Bank Regulation, Statistics and Risk Management.

Since May 2018 until January 2019 he served as acting governor of the Bank of Slovenia.